Technology, Pedagogy and Education Call for Papers Topics

- Educational technology practices and innovations in education – schools, teacher education, higher education and informal settings
- The theory and practice of educational technology in teaching and professional development/learning
- Evaluation of the impact of educational technology on teaching and learning
- Social, cultural, political and economic aspects of educational technology and pedagogy, particularly concerning better educational opportunities for disadvantaged learners
- Pre-service teachers working with educational technology in formal and informal settings
- Learners working with educational technology
- Links between schools, training institutions and the wider community